was time when the people behaved better, [appleuse] and he felt couddent such a time would come once more. Several Bonthern States have voted for Seymour, or are in doubt, because men's lives were because if they attempted to vote. When Congress meets, in a short time it will be our purpose to find a remedy for this state of things, and if Andrew Johnson does not account our efforts, though late in the day, we will try to provide for him. [Appleuse.] If the Republicas party is trus to the great Democratic principle of Jefferson and others, it will bold the government for generations to come. We must be true to the doctrines of equality and truth, on the integrity of the masses of the American people [rather than to any member selected from among them. Let us priedge coractives, as the party in power, that we will aid in carrying out the principles under which we have triumphed.

Treasury Affairs

By the 4th section of the act of June 30th, 1864 the Secretary of the Tresurry was authorized to receive temporary deposits or toans to the United States, to the extended $200,000,000, for not less than 30 days, at 6 per cent. Interest, and not less than do mays, at o per cent. Interest, and to meet sudden calls wes authorized to issue a reserve of $50,000,000 of legal tenders. These deposits and loans having been paid, the Secretary has no reserve which he can use for any purpose whatever, excepting a small remaining sum isse than a third of a million. This feet is stated because a contrary opinion has heretofore prevailed. Secretary McCallough.
